Churchill Reveals Telling Figures Of Tunisia Battle

AIR-WARFARE TURNS INTO BOOMERANG FOR AXIS: "U-BOAT FIELDS ARE EVERYWHERE BUT NEW WEAPONS WILL DEAL WITH THEM"

WESTMINSTER, June 8.

The Prime Minister Mr. Churchill received a tremendous ovation when he entered the Commons today for the first time, following his latest visit to Washington and North Africa.

BIG AXIS LOSS

Mr. Churchill told the House of Commons that there must certainly have been 50,000 of the enemy killed, making a total of about 300,000 enemy disposed of in Tunisia alone.

ALLIED CASUALTIES

Mr. Churchill announced that the Eighth Army, since they crossed the frontier from Tripolitania, had sustained about 11,500 casualties and the First Army about 23,500 casualties. In all 37,000 were killed, missing and wounded in the two British armies during the campaign.

Mr. Churchill announced that 248,000 war prisoners passed through the cages of all Allies in North Africa, being an increase of 24,000 on previously published figures.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND TASK AHEAD

Mr. Churchill said that at Washington the entire expanse of the world war "on which the mellow light of victory now begins to play" was laid open to the British and American leaders. "We have shown" he added, "that we can work together. We have shown that we can face disaster.

"We have still to show that we can keep ourselves at the height and level of the successful events and be worthy of the good fortune. Perhaps that may be the hardest task of all.

"It would not be right, of course, for me to attempt to give even in outline an account of the decisions which we reached. All I can say is that we have done our best. Complete agreement about forward steps has been reached between the two Governments. There have been no sort of differences such as occurred in the last war—inevitable on account of the forces at work—between politicians and military men. I shall make no predictions as to what will happen in the future. All I can say is that the Anglo-American policy, strategy and economy were brought into full focus and punch in those fifteen days talks at Washington.

AFRICAN TALKS

After we had completed our task at Washington, I thought it well to go to North Africa and I was very glad that the President decided to send along with me Gen. Marshall, Chief of the United States Army and Air Force, a man of singular eminence of mind and character. We flew together across the Atlantic to Gibraltar and Algiers in order to deal more particularly and precisely on the spot with the problems of the Mediterranean theatre. Therefore another week we had the advantage of full discussions with Gen. Eisenhower, the Supreme Commander, Gen. Alexander, Admiral Cunningham, Air Chief Marshal Tedder, Air Marshal Conyngham, Gen. Montgomery, General Spaatz, Gen. Bedell, and other high British and United States officers directly concerned with the execution of plans, which I can best describe as directed to the application upon the enemy of force in its most intense and violent forms.

VAST ARMIES IN AFRICA

He assured the House that the most complete concord and confidence prevailed at Gen. Eisenhower's headquarters and the forces of the two great nations of English-speaking world were working together literally as if they were of a single army.

"I was told by officers of both countries that in the movement of troops or distribution of supplies, no questions of national origin arise between staff officers, interleaved at every stage and a tier of vast organisation. It is just a question of what is the best thing to do—that and no more.

"In travelling about these armies and seeing perhaps 20,000 troops and airmen in a day. I sustained the impression of their extraordinary ardour and zeal to engage the enemy again at the earliest moment."

Vast armies have come into being in this African war and to become conscious of their spirit is an ennobling influence for a visitor. Cheered by the remarkable victory after many baffling and disappointments, the British and American armies and the now new French armies have become a most powerful and finely tempered weapon. They have full confidence in themselves and also in the high command in war direction.

"BRIGHTER PROSPECTS BEFORE US"

This is also true of the more numerous and powerful forces, British, Canadian and American which have formed and are forming in the United Kingdom. It is evident that amphibious operations of peculiar complexity and hazard on a large scale are approaching. I can give no guarantee any more than I have done in the past of what will happen. I am sorry that a few days ago in the press of travel and affairs, I let slip the expression 'brilliant prospects lie before us.'

I would prefer to substitute the words 'brighter and solid prospects lie before us'. That I think would be more appropriate and becoming in such anxious days.

"There must certainly have been 50,000 of the enemy killed, making a total loss of about 300,000 men to the enemy disposed of in Tunisia alone.

"More than half of these men are Germans (cheers).

"In fact, of the 37,000 prisoners taken by the United States Second Corps, 33,000 were Germans. The French 19th Corps also led tens of thousands of German and Italian captives to the rear and must have felt after all that their country has gone through, that they were once again reliving the great days of Foch and Clemenceau.

"All this takes no account of the very heavy toll taken of German and Italian forces as they crossed over the sea or passed through the air,..... I believe that only 638 person have escaped and these for the most part by air.

NAZI DISASTERS

One cannot doubt that both Stalingrad and Tunisia are the greatest military disasters that have ever befallen Germany in all the wars she has made and they are many (cheers). There is no doubt from statements of captured Generals that Hitler expected his Tunisian army to hold out at least till August. The suddenness of the collapse of these great numbers of brave and skilful fighting men with every form of excellent equipment must be regarded as significant and in a sense characteristic of German psychology, which was shown after Jena and also at the very end of the last war (cheers). Though this fact should certainly be noted and weighed, no undue expectations should be based upon it.

We are prepared to win this war by hard fighting and IF NECESSARY BY HARD FIGHTING ALONE.

ERROR OF NEUTRALS

Mr. Churchill went on to say that in the years of peace, the peoples of British Commonwealth and United States were easy going folk wishing to live a free life. Nevertheless, when attacked, they were not incapable of making the necessary war transformation. Such nations did not become exhausted by war but got stronger as it went on. "It is an error on the part of certain neutrals to suppose that previously unprepared and ill-armed, the Anglo-Saxon democracies will emerge from this war weakened and prostrate even though victorious.

"On the contrary we shall be stronger than ever before in force and I trust also in faith (cheers). It may well be that these guilty races that trumpeted the glories of war at the beginning will be extolling the virtues of peace before the end. It would certainly seem right, however, that those who fix on their own terms the moment for beginning wars should not be the same men who fix on their own terms the moment for ending them (cheers).

No Counsel Yet With Russia

"I AM VERY SORRY THAT WE HAVE NOT YET BEEN ABLE TO BRING INTO COUNSEL MARSHAL STALIN OR OTHER REPRESENTATIVES OF OUR OWN GREAT ALLY, RUSSIA, WHICH IS BEARING THE HEAVIEST BURDEN AND PAYING BY FAR THE HIGHEST PRICE IN BLOOD AND LIFE.

"But I can assure the House that taking some of the weight off Russia and giving more speedy and effective aid to China and giving a stronger measure of security to our beloved Australia and New Zealand—these are never absent for one moment from our thoughts and aims.

"Each of the Allies naturally sees the theatres of war from a different angle and in somewhat different elation. We the British must continue to place the anti-U-Boat war first because it is only by conquering the U-Boats that we can live and act. The might of America is deployed far over the Pacific and is laying an ever stronger grip on the outlying defences of Japan and offering every moment to the Japanese fleet a supreme challenge of sea power.

"The Russian armies, as I mentioned to Congress the other day, are in a deadly grapple with what we estimate to be 190 German and 28 Satellite divisions along their 2,000 miles front.

"It is here that the greatest battles seem to impend.

BOOMERANG FOR AXIS

"Then there is the war in the air. The steady wearing down of the German and Japanese air forces is proceeding remorselessly.

"The enemy who thought that the air would be their weapon of victory are now finding in it the first cause of their ruin.

"It is necessary for me to make it plain that so far as the British Government and the Governments of the Dominions and also the Governments of the United States and of the Russian Soviet Republic are concerned, nothing will turn us from our endeavour and intention to accomplish the complete destruction of our foes by bombing from the air in addition to all other methods (cheers).

ALLIED RAIDS TELL

"Loud and lamentable outcries are being made by the enemy now that this form of warfare by which they thought to obtain mastery of the world has turned markedly to their disadvantage. These outcries will only be regarded by us as very satisfactory proof of the growing efficiency of our attack (cheers).

"The month of May has from every point of view been the best month we have ever had in the anti-U-Boat war since the United States was attacked by Japan. Germany and Italy. The sinkings have been greatly less than we apprehended and the buildings have more than made good the prodigious programmes undertaken by the American nation. This month of May has been one of the very best for imports carried safely into this island since the end of 1941. Our combined new buildings has exceeded our losses by more than three to one.

U-Boat Menace

"There are so many U-Boats employed now that it is almost impossible not to run into one or another of these great fields or screens of U-Boats which are spread out. Therefore you have to fight your way through but there is no reason why we should regret that.

CONVOYS CAN MAKE BEST KILLS

"On the contrary it is around convoys that U-boats can best be destroyed. New weapons and new methods and close co-ordination of effort between surface and air escorts have enabled us to inflict casualties which have surpassed all previous records. Our killings of U-Boats have substantially outnumbered the U-Boat output. That may be a fateful milestone. The Germans seem to be staking their hopes upon the U-Boat war. They are encouraged to bear the evils the terror as they call it—perhaps not an ill-chosen word—of air bombardment by hopes that on the sea, the U-Boats are taking their revenge.

NAZI PSYCHOLOGY

"If it should be made clear that this hope has failed them, they may be seriously disappointed and they are a people who, when seriously disappointed, do not always find resources to confront approaching disaster once their reason tells them it is inevitable.

"Again I say I make the observation in passing. Do not let us build on such deductions.

"We may have setbacks, though I

CHURCHILL ON "GUILTY RACES"

"It is an error on the part of certain Neutrals to suppose that previously unprepared and ill-armed, the Anglo-Saxon democracies will emerge from this war weakened and prostrate even though victorious.

"On the contrary we shall be stronger than ever before in force and I trust also in faith (cheers).

"It may well be that these guilty races that trumpeted the glories of war at the beginning will be extolling the virtues of peace before the end.

"It would certainly seem right, however, that those who fix on their own terms the moment for beginning wars should not be the same men who fix on their own terms the moment for ending them (cheers).—Churchill in Commons.

Hazards Of Amphibious Warfare

LONDON, June 8.

A crowded House listened intently to the Prime Minister Mr. Churchill today.

"Amphibious operations of a peculiar complexity and hazard on a large scale are approaching", he declared, and he described plans which had been made as "directed to the application upon the enemy of force in its most intense and violent forms."

"The operations now impending in the European theatre have been fitted into their proper place in relation to general war", he said.

To the audience, which included the Soviet Ambassador M. Maisky. Mr. Churchill gave the assurance that more and speady and effective aid to China were never absent from their thoughts and aims. Tunisia and Stalingrad were the "greatest military disasters" that had ever befallen Germany in all the wars she had made. He pointed out that the sudden Axis collapse in Tunisia must be regarded as significant and characteristic of German psychology.

CHURCHILL IS MODEST, SAYS KNOX

WASHINGTON: The Navy Secretary Col. Knox commenting at a Press Conference on Mr. Churchill's statement on the complexity and hazards amphibious operations, said, "that is probably a conservative statement."

After referring to the fact that the difficulties which have to be overcome until the end of the struggle will not disappear at its termination, President Ineunu added: "In any case it will be a long time before we shall be able to march side by side with independent nations. Hurdles In Bihar Ministry-making

PATNA, June 8.

Mr. S. Haider Imam, M.L.A. (Central) has issued the following statement:—

"The formation of a stable Ministry in Bihar has proved to be after all a very difficult matter. The hurdles to be jumped over in this connection were found to be not so easy and negotiable as they perhaps might have been first thought of. The path that led to the popular Ministry was beset at every step with almost insurmountable obstacles and hindrances, though the prime movers of this programme were injustifiably swayed by undue sense of optimism. Plans, before fruition, were injudiciously disclosed which made matters worse.

Another stumbling block to the formation of the Ministry, in my humble opinion, is the thorny question of premiership. Who is to form the Cabinet?

THREE CAN'T AGREE

"Mr. C. P. N. Sinha by virtue of being the leader of the Opposition, Khan Bahadur S. M. Ismail and Mr. Mohammed Yunus as leaders of the Muslim League and Independent Parties respectively, have undoubted credentials to form a Ministry provided they succeed in securing enough support from the members of the Legislature to form the majority in the House. But can these three gentlemen be expected to work jointly to achieve the desired objectives? In the absence of the Congress, with overwhelming majority, not participating in the ministry-making programme, it becomes all the more important that these gentlemen, with all their resources and strength, should put up a united front to succeed in the formation of the Ministry. But from their statements that have recently appeared in the papers, it is as clear as broad daylight that each of them seems inclined to pursue his own programme of action.

"In the circumstances, the chances of ministry-making in Bihar are highly uncertain, if not impracticable altogether."—United Press.

NO BLANK CHEQUE TO LEAGUE

LUCKNOW, June 8.

Efforts for setting up a Ministry in the United Province by certain Muslim League and Mahasabha leaders are disapproved by the orthodox Hindu Mahasabha, group.

The Secretary of the City Hindu Mahasabha, Lucknow, mentions the name of Raja Maheshwar Dayalsheth in this connection and asserts that the latter's activities are viewed with disproval by Mr. V. D. Savarkar, President of the All-India Hindu Mahasabha. It is stressed that the Hindus are not opposed to coalition but that the present negotiations are being carried on the basis of a blank cheque to the League—a procedure which is unthinkable in a Hindu-majority province. The Muslim Laegue has set up its own ministries in the Muslim majority provinces and the Hindus should follow their lead in the provinces in which they are in majority.—United Press.

SIND MINISTER'S NEW VISION!

KARACHI, June 8

"It is my considered opinion that the first step towards achieving the Hindu-Muslim Unity is that all the Hindus should come together under the banner of the Hindu Mahasabha and similarly the Muslims should come together under the flag of the Muslim League so that it may become easier for the two organisations to come to some settlement with the full knowledge that such understanding or agreement will have the support of both the communities thereby paving the way for permanent peace in the country", said Dr. Hemandas Wadhwani, in an interview to the "United Press" in connection with his talks with Mr. Jinnah, President of the Muslim League.

Concluding Dr. Hemandas said, "The salvation of the country lies in the League-Sabha rapprochement and not in League-Congress rapprochement."—United Press.

No. 8|34, Satyamangalam Road, COIMBATORE, (Madras Province).

OBJECTS

The Company has been formed generally for the purposes set out in the Memorandum of Association which is annexed hereto and forms part of this Prospectus and this issue is made in particular for the purposes of acquiring three well-known groups of Estates on the Nilgiri Hills, Madras Province, namely:—

1. SUTTON and LOUISIANA Estates belonging to Messrs. James Stanes, N. J. Stanes, and J. Vernede.
2. MOUTERE Estate belonging to Mr. James Stanes, Mrs. Vernede, and three others.
3. KATARY and BHAWANI Estates belonging to the Katary Nilgiri Tea Estates Ltd., London.

The following agreements have been entered into:—

(a) Between Messrs. James Stanes, N. J. Stanes and J. Vernede and Mr. S. Veeriah Reddiar of Alleppey, whereby the former have agreed to sell Sutton and Louisiana Estates to the latter or his nominee for a sum of Rs. 16,50,000.

(b) Between Mr. James Stanes and Mrs. C. Vernede, Proprietors of 5|8 share in Moutere Estate and Mr. S. Veeriah Reddiar, whereby the former have agreed to sell to Mr. Veeriah Reddiar or his nominee their 5|8 share in the property and to procure the conveyance of the balance 3|8 share from the other partners resident in England, for a sum of Rs. 4,40,000. This price includes shares to the value of Rs. 40,000 held by the proprietors of this Estate in the Guernsey Tea Factory Co., Ltd.

(c) Between the Katary Nilgiri Tea Estates Ltd. and Mr. A. V. Thomas whereby the former have agreed to sell their Katary and Bhawani Estates to the latter or his nominee for a sum of Rs. 27,00,000.

(d) Between Mr. S. Veeriah Reddiar and the Company whereby Mr. S. Veeriah Reddiar has agreed to assign his right, title and interest in the agreements mentioned in (a) and (b) to the Company for a consideration Rs. 65,000|-

(e) Between Mr. A. V. Thomas and the Company whereby Mr. A. V. Thomas has agreed to assign his right, title and interest in the agreement mentioned in (c) free of any consideration.

ACREAGE AND PARTICULARS OF ESTATES

The Acreage of the Estates are as under:—

	Tea	Coffee Arabica	Bldg. Sites & Reserve Land	Total Acres
Sutton & Louisiana	466.75	101.00	51.00	618.75
Moutere	120.32	53.20	6.25	179.77
Katary & Bhawani	1048.00	109.00	229.00	1386.00
Total	1635.07	263.20	286.25	2184.52

1. SUTTON & LOUISIANA GROUP is about six miles from Coonoor on the Kullakamby Government road and is one of the finest, if not the finest, Tea properties on the Nilgiris. This Group was opened by the proprietors who are all experienced planters. The average yield of this group over the past six years works out at 813 lbs. of tea per acre, but before the voluntary crop restriction scheme came into force a crop of nearly 1,000 lbs. per acre was obtained, and it is possible to increase the yield to this figure with cultivation and manuring.

   There is a fully equipped and adequate tea factory on this group as also other buildings such as Bungalows, staff quarters and lines for labour.

2. MOUTERE ESTATE: If Sutton is the finest Tea property, this can be classed as the finest Tea cum Coffee Estate on the Nilgiri Hills. This Estate also was worked by the Stanes family of planters and the yields from both Tea and Coffee areas are very good indeed. The Tea crop works out at an average of 800 lbs. per acre over three years, and that of Coffee at about 8 cwts. per acre. This Estate also is manufactured in Guernsey Tea Factory Co. and the Estate holds one-fifth share. There are the required buildings on the Estate and also a Coffee-pulping house and machinery.

3. KATARY & BHAWANI ESTATES: This group adjoins Sutton Estate and is conveniently situated for efficient working and administration. These estates were signatories to the voluntary crop Restriction Scheme and the restricted crops secured were as under:—

5,02,000	5,46,000	6,50,000

For the ten months ended 31st March 1943, 4,59,400 lbs. of tea have been harvested and as May and June are good months for crop it is expected that the estimate of 6,50,000 lbs. will be secured.

As stated above, these estates did not gather all their crop for the past few years as they were under the restriction scheme. In recent years, the estates have been brought into first-class condition and manuring and other cultivation works have been carried on and are now capable of producing crops much in excess of earlier figures. For the year 1943-44, with manuring, it is possible to obtain a crop of 7,00,000 lbs. or about 700 lbs. per acre. Another very important factor is that out of 1043 acres of tea on these estates very nearly 500 acres are areas planted by the Katary Co., during the years 1926 to 1930 and being young are capable of giving much higher yields. Even under the Crop Restriction Scheme, certain fields on the group gave as much as 1,000 lbs. per acre.

Now that the Crop Restriction Scheme has been withdrawn and more manure is being applied, larger crops can confidently be looked for. For the year 1944-45, 7,50,000 lbs. can be taken as a safe estimate and for the year following 8,00,000 lbs.

Coffee Area in this group amounts to 109 acres and with attention should give a crop about 3 cwts. per acre.

There are two fully equipped factories on the Estates. The factory on Katary contains up-to-date machinery, some of which was installed about a year or two ago. There are also two Bungalows on the property and the necessary accommodation for staff and labour.

Including the Factory on Sutton Estate there are three factories on the Sutton-Katary Group. It may not be necessary to operate all the three factories. The factory on Bhawani can be closed down and the crop obtained from the two groups of estates can be conveniently manufactured in the Katary and the Sutton Estates' Factories. This will tend to economy in costs.

All the above Estates are situated at an elevation ranging from about 5,500 to 6,000 feet.

CROPS

The estimated crops for the season 1943-44 (July-June) are as under:—

	Tea	Coffee
Sutton Group	4,00,000 lbs.	400 cwts.
Moutere ...	1,00,000 lbs.	400 cwts.
Katary Group	7,00,000 lbs.	300 cwts.
Total	12,00,000 lbs.	1,100 cwts

WORKING EXPENSES: During the past few years the average working cost was about 40 cents per lb. of tea but in view of the present increased cost of Estate requisites and food for labourers the cost for the next season is estimated at 45 cents or about As. 7|3 per lb. The cost for Coffee is estimated at Rs. 25|- per cwt.

PRICES: Nilgiri teas being high grown, usually fetch higher prices than medium and low elevation teas. Certain quantities of teas have been sold forward at prices ranging from As. 15-6 to Rs. 1-4 per lb., but for estimating, an average price of Rs. 1 per lb. is taken.

As regards Coffee, the current market price is about Rs. 150|- per cwt. Nilgiri Coffee is marked higher in auctions and, although an average price of Rs. 130|- to Rs. 140|- per cwt. can be expected for 1943-44 crop, a price of Rs. 120 only is taken.

PROSPECTS

On the above basis the estimated profit is reckoned as follows:—

Income: 12,00,000 lbs. of Tea at Rs. 1 per lb. ... ... Rs.		12.00,000
1,100 cwts. of Coffee at Rs. 120 per cwt.	„	1,32,000
Total ...	„	13,32,000
Expenditure: On Tea at 45 cents per lb.	„	5.40,000
On Coffee at Rs. 25|- per cwt. ...	„	27,500
Total ...	„	5,67,500
Balance Profit	„	7,64,500

Out of this, a sum of Rs. 90,000 will have to be set apart for payment of dividend on the 5% cumulative preference shares. A further deduction of Rs. 64,500 will also have to be made for Managing Agents remuneration, their 5% commission and other charges. This will leave a sum of Rs. 6,10,000 available to the ordinary shareholders, which on Rs. 36 lakhs of ordinary capital works out to about 17%.

The above figures are based on an average yield of 734 lbs. per acre on the Tea area. The Estates are capable of yielding a crop of 900 lbs. per acre, but even if 800 lbs. per acre is taken as the basis, the extra crop will amount to over 100,000 lbs. and the additional profit will work out to Rs. 5,000 or 1.50% on the ordinary share capital, thus increasing the percentage of return to 18.50. This return from first class property on the Nilgiri Hills should be considered very satisfactory.

DIRECTORS' QUALIFICATION AND REMUNERATION

The qualification of a Director shall be the holding in his own right of shares of the nominal value of Rs. 5,000.

The Articles provide that the Directors shall be paid out of the funds of the Company a remuneration not exceeding Rs. 5,000 per year for all the Directors besides reasonable travelling and other expenses incurred in attending meetings of the Board. They may also be entitled to any other expenses they may incur by authorisation in or about the Company's business. NOVEL SCHEME OF EARNING MONEY

MARGIN DEPOSIT SYSTEM

Under this Scheme our constituents get an opportunity to earn money from the Share Market—where favourable conditions are, so to say, practically constant—by buying and selling shares of various industrial concerns. They can enjoy the benefit of the full value by an initial deposit of 25% only of the full value of shares.

As for example:—Say 'A' wishes to buy 1,000 Indian Iron & Steel shares @ Rs. 35|- each; now if 'A' pays Rs. 8,750|- only as deposit with us, we shall buy the shares on his behalf by advancing the balance of Rs. 26,250|- carrying an interest of 6% per annum only till the disposal of the shares. Now, if within a fortnight the market rises to Rs. 45|- 'A' will get Rs. 10,000|- less (Rs. 65-10-0 interest plus Rs. 250|- being our brokerage @ -2|- each time) i.e., Rs. 9,684-6-0 NET PROFIT. Similar may be the result by selling at the first hand instead of buying.

TO HELP SHIPS IN DISTRESS

New Salvage Organisation Set Up

To assist vessels in distress in Indian waters a Naval Salvage Organisation has been established, says a press note.

At certain points on India's coast there are to be salvage vessels commissioned as units of the Royal Indian Navy and manned by R.I.N. personnel. They will be provided with the necessary salvage plant and stores and fire fighting equipment and will have a staff of experts, including divers, shipwrights and riggers. Certain sea-going tugs owned by port authorities will also be made available as rescue tugs to bring immediate aid to stranded or disabled ships until a salvage ship arrives on the scene.

The Chief Salvage Officer has been appointed from the Royal Indian Navy, and control will be vested in the Flag Officer Commanding the Royal Indian Navy.

Some salvage operations have been successfully carried out in Indian waters in the past, but the new organisation will provide greater and more speedy help for disabled vessels. It will also be utilised to clear ports and channels of obstructions and wrecks should the necessity arise. Such work helps materially in the present worldwide "battle for tonnage" by promoting the free movement of shipping.

ONE MORE PICTURE-HOUSE

Kamal Talkies Opens With "Muhabbat"

"It is in your hands to make or mar a producer or a theatre. If you know that a picture or a theatre is bad, just do not patronise it. The very next day you boycott a theatre for showing bad films, the theatre will be compelled to hunt for good films and show them to you. Consequently the producer will be obliged to produce better films". Thus said Mr. Chandulal J. Shah, the Ranjit chief, while declaring the Kamal Talkies open at Sandhurst Road, Kamal Talkies, was opened with Laxmi Productions' latest film "Muhabbat", which presents Shanta Apte and Pahari Sanyal, the two famous stars, in prominent roles. Many leading figures in the film industry in Bombay and the press were present on the occasion. The theatre was decorated for the occasion, and was declared open amidst cheers of enthusiastic filmgoers.

"The industry has progressed despite the apathy of the Government, because you have encouraged it", Mr. Chandulal Shah continued, addressing the audience. "You are the most important factor in the success or failure of a film. To-day you are getting a new first run house in Bombay, and perhaps a good new film too. See it for yourselves, and if you like it then only encourage it."

Mr. H. I. Jamaluddin, President of the Bombay Hack Victoriawallas' Association, in a communication addressed to the Revenue Secretary, Government of Bombay complains of the extravagant prices of hay that are prevailing in the market and the difficulty of buying adequate stocks by victoriawallas.

The President concludes with an earnest appeal to the Government to make suitable arrangements so that one lakh of cattle and horses in Bombay can be adequately fed.

The Half-Column "By Dim"

Before going to the Blavatsky Lodge where Frank Moraes was to speak, I looked in at the club for a quick cup of tea. A member asked me why I was in such a hurry.

"I am going to hear Frank Moraes speak," I said.

What is he speaking on?"

"Arakan, I suppose."

"He is in Switzerland," came the knowing answer.

"Yes, of course," I said, "the Aga Khan is in Switzerland."

What else could I say?

Here is a suggestion for the National War Front which occasionally organizes competitions with a view to promote war-consciousness. Why not have a competition open to all barristers, vakils, solicitors and other legally trained persons to see how many ancient laws and Acts can be discovered whereby Indians can be detained in jail without a trial? It would create more good feeling of the type the National War Front wants to create, I am quite sure.

Have you heard the Share bazaar pronunciation of "Pantellaria"?

The Editor of the "Bombay Chronicle" wonders how the articles of Louis Fischer could possibly be construed as jeopardizing the defence of India. Why, it's very obvious: Louis Fischer affects the defence of the Government of India on the American front. It jeopardizes the brilliant defence put up by Joccelyn Hennessy and the Christian ex-Viceroy Halifax. The raspberry-grenade barrage some of our propagandists must have received must be making that front intensely vulnerable.

The new Argentine President, General Ramirez, according to a local headline, is to rule with an iron hand. Rumour says that the Argentines have requested the Government of India for the loan of Reginald Maxwell. But then, of course, it's dangerous to believe rumours, the National War Front has told us.

SECOND Childhood

Hard to believe, that this middle-aged executive has resuscitated his childhood friend—the slate!

Instead of simple sums, it now carries notes of telephone conversations, figures, and appointments. It saves daily paper of ten times its own surface.

Follow this lead back to second childhood—help to save paper—for essential uses only.

Revise all your stationery, forms and statements. You can save over 25% of the paper surface you are now using.

There is an acute paper shortage. Your attention is drawn to the following methods of avoiding waste of paper:—

- Use the smallest sheet of paper for any purpose that will do the job.
- Write, type and print on both sides of the paper. For short letters, bills and accounts reduce the size of the paper.
- Do not make copies except where absolutely necessary.
- Always type single spacing.
- In all cases (letters, commercial printing jobs and pamphlets, etc.) curtail margins.
- Reduce the size of labels on manufactured goods.
- Use the back of the letters received for the carbon copy of your replies.

HOW WOMEN CAN WIN MEN AND MEN WIN
Respect of Other Men
Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. You get yellow tongue, yellow skin, pimples, dull eyes, bad breath, bad taste, gas, dizziness, headache. You have become an ugly-looking, foul-smelling, sour-thinking person. Everybody wants to run from you.
Laxatives can't help, for they only move out the tail end of your bowels and that doesn't take away the decayed poison.
Only a free flow of your bile juice will stop this decay poison in your bowels. The one mild vegetable medicine which starts a free flow of your bile juice is Carter's Little Liver Pills. No calomel in Carter's. Only fine, mild, vegetable extracts. If you would bring back your personal charm, start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills according to directions today.

SHED VINDICTIVENESS

The "Times of India" has attempted to justify Government's policy in neither releasing Congress leaders nor trying them before a suitable tribunal nor giving any facilities for negotiations with them. But our contemporary does little more than restate Government's own oft-repeated plea that so long as the war is on the disabilities imposed on the Congress leaders must continue unless they withdraw the civil disobedience resolution of August last. This plea has often been answered before but deserves repeated criticism, particularly when it is endorsed by any responsible paper. So far as the release of Congress leaders is considered, we commend it mainly because it is sure to end completely or almost completely whatever violence still persists in the country. We are so sure about this because Gandhiji, who is at present the virtual dictator of the Congress, will never countenance any kind of violence; and as a matter of fact his denunciation of violence in his published correspondence with the Viceroy did more to end it than all the violent attempts of Government to suppress it. The effect of this denunciation was instantaneous, almost magical, showing thereby that those Congressmen who were involved in acts of violence had been misled by the repeated allegations by officials and revolutionaries that this time Gandhiji and Congress had compromised their creed of non-violence. The effect of Gandhiji's letter was enhanced by the reports of several persons who had interviews with Gandhiji during his fast, all reports confirming his condemnation of every kind of violence. One may ask, why then does not Gandhiji call off the entire campaign in the country? One answer is that Government are largely responsible for the campaign, that Congress had not time at all to start any campaign, and that the people, enraged by Government's violence, did things on their own responsibility on the plea that in the absence of leaders' guidance they must resist repression as best they could and many of them were misled by officials and revolutionaries as suggested above. Another answer is that the present campaign is a mixed one and that the violence therein has already been denounced by Gandhiji. As regards individual acts of civil disobedience by Congressmen, the only honourable way to suspend them is through a decision following deliberations between Gandhiji and the Working Committee members. But Government prevent any contact between him and those members. Possibly some persons may persuade Gandhiji to follow some other way to end the deadlock. But Government prevent even responsible leaders like Mr. C. Rajagopalachari, one of the best friends of Government in respect of the war, from interviewing Gandhiji with regard to the political problem. Government will help themselves as well as the country if they shed their vindictiveness and, to begin with, enable common friends like Mr. Rajagopalachari or Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru or Dr. M. R. Jayakar to interview Gandhiji. We would ask the "Times of India" if there is any reasonable objection to this first step towards a possible settlement.

We have commended the release of Congress leaders mainly on political grounds. We urge the release of rank and file Congress detenus mainly on grounds of justice and fairplay. Most of them were in no sense responsible for the August resolution. Most of them had not offered civil disobedience, let alone participating in the sabotage movement. In the case of many persons there was no evidence to justify even suspicion against them. They were detained so that there might be no possibility of their doing anything prejudicial. This was, as the Federal Court has shown, unlawful. In many cases the position was worse. The men were detained just because they were self-assertive and refused to bend their knees before local police officials or to give unnecessary humiliating assurances. The local police chose to describe them as dangerous persons and explained the utter absence of any evidence against them by stating that they were working under-ground. The higher authorities in their panic chose to accept this plea and jailed them without any trial, without any investigation. This was perhaps understandable when the war situation was such as to cause panic. There is no justification whatsoever now for the detention of any person without a trial before a suitable tribunal. Government have seen their error and are releasing a few detenus at a time but the process is too slow and too over-cautious, as if Government cared less for justice than for their own prestige or for the prestige of the local officials who were responsible for the indiscriminate detentions. The releases have not only done no harm but have strengthened the insistence on non-violence. In all parts of the country now there is non-violence; where people offer civil disobedience they ask for the penalties in a spirit of Satyagraha and may be proceeded against according to law but without any vindictiveness. But it is both injustice and bad statesmanship to continue the detention of any person without a suitable trial.

'Coup' Or Confusion?

Has the Argentine 'coup d'etat' gone away? General Rawson assumed Presidentship of the Republic on the successful conclusion of the military revolt. But almost immediately afterwards he resigned his post and the surprise was further aggravated by the laconic statement that he was resigning because of the impossibility of constituting the new Government. What was the impossibility due to? It is being hinted that General Rawson failed to induce General Ramirez, who has now succeeded him, and many of his colleagues to agree to a change in foreign policy, the policy that is to say of Pan-American collaboration and of breaking off relations with the Axis. If this is correct, the change in the Argentine regime is merely a change of personalities without that of policy.

FRANKLY SPEAKING

Luftwaffe's Return

A new feature has emerged in the Mediterranean air war. This is the return of the Luftwaffe after an absence of about three weeks. Opposition by Messerschmitt fighters was encountered over Sicily and a group of German "suicide pilots" took off even from bombcrated aerodromes of Pantellaria itself. The Germans have realised the gravity of the imminent menace and have reappeared in the Mediterranean area not only for military reasons but also to prop up Italian morale. This return of the Luftwaffe after the shattering blows it received in the North Africa ought, however to be welcomed by the Allies. For it means a further thinning out of the aerial defences of Germany's Europe and it also gives the Allied air forces the opportunity of knocking out a goodly number of planes. In any case, renewed Luftwaffe resistance must inevitably be weak and cannot affect Allied plans.

Invasion "Signs"

According to the latest reports from Berlin to Stockholm, so says a Reuter's report, large numbers of barges and other light invasion craft have now been observed in all ports of Tunisia as well as in the ports of Philippeville and Bona in Algeria. The Ankara radio, Reuter also reports, said the other night that the growing activity of Allied air forces over Italian ports and islands is considered as a prelude to an Allied landing. All that we want to say is: Let us hope these reports and their implications are correct. But we do note that even Pantellaria has yet to be invaded.

Mr. V. D. Savarkar

Many a deserved tribute is being paid to Mr. V. D. Savarkar in the course of the celebrations of his sixty-first birthday Mr. Savarkar had a dramatic past and his sacrifices and sufferings and the courage he has always displayed cannot but thrill an Indian. He has done more to make the Hindu Mahasabha a power to be reckoned with than any other past President of that body. His work for the removal of untouchability will be admired by any Congress leader. His burning sincerity, his capacity to throw himself headlong into anything he sets his heart on, his remarkable eloquence and his high literary talent lift him far above the common run of leaders. We strongly disapprove of his aggressive communalism and the provocative manner in which he often expresses the Hindu Mahasabha point of view and it is doubtless a pity that recently he has taken up an unreasonable anti-Congress attitude. But that is often the lot of men who give to a community what was due to the nation. However, a communal settlement cannot be long delayed and it may be that in bringing this about both Mr. Savarkar and Mr. Jinnah may play no mean part. In any case we wish Mr. Savarkar long life and health and trust he will live long enough to enjoy the fruits of his life-long labours for Indian independence.

AUSTRALIAN AS INDIA'S VICEROY?

Richard Casey, If Selected May Be Created Viscount

(From Our Correspondent)

LONDON, June 8.

As filly "Tropical Sun" suddenly supplants the Oaks favourite "Herringbone" on the eve of the event so Mr. Richard Casey is now outpacing other competitors in the Viceregal stakes. Aged horse "Swinton" has been favourite for several weeks but the colt from the Australian stable is now being heavily backed. He is now reckoned likely to be a favourite in the Churchill stable but since all horses come from the same stable, it won't matter very much to Churchill who wins once the decision is made. There are indications that Mr. Richard Casey may one be Viscount Casey or something else in the nobility.

It is claimed by Mr. Casey's supporters that he has achieved much in Cairo. They also say that although his political break with Australia will never be repaired, his appointment as Viceroy of India will certainly improve Australia's trade relations with India, opening up new avenues after war between the two countries and at this stage of war Mr. Casey's appointment could be valuable for the whole of the British Empire.

Should Mr. Casey be appointed, interesting constitutional problems will arise. An Australian cannot receive peerage. When another Australian Mr. William Hughes was granted Lord Forrest's elevation, it was it may be remembered, with Hughesian cynicism and Lord Forrest died. In Australia itself, no man can even be a Baronet—knighthood of any order being the summit to which titles in the Commonwealth can climb, but it is thought here it would be impossible for the Viceroy-elect to go to India as plain "mister."

In Mr. Casey's case an exception may be made but traditionists as well as strict conventionists may put up a fight to have him created at least a Viscount.

The other point which is interesting is, would the Australian Government be asked to give its consent to one of its nationals thus being honoured?

"TIMES" SPECULATION.

The "Times" Parliamentary Correspondent says that both for the reason that India is destined to be an important base for War operations and because constitutional problems nave to be solved after the War, Lord Linlithgow's successor will have to face some crusial, exacting years. It is not easy to find a man with all the necessary qualifications for this high post at such a time. The choice must be made with great care. One or two men outside the Government who, though eligible, are no longer young enough to shoulder such responsibilities. It seems increasingly probable that to find a man with the necessary experience of the affairs, the Prime Minister will have to select some member of the War Cabinet.

MOPPING UP OF ISOLATED JAPS

Enemy Garrison Town Bombed

CHUNGKING, June 8.

As the Chinese main forces advance eastward towards the western shores of Lake Tungtinog, other Chinese units are mopping up isolated Japanese detachments holding out at various points along the south bank of the Yangtse river. Tonight's Chinese 'communique' claimed that upto yesterday, the Japanese suffered at least a thousand casualties in mopping up operations in and around Itu. These operations continue in the area south of Sungtse, east of Itu. The 'communique' also reported Chinese attacks in Southern Hupeh and Northern Hunan mainly along the Canton-Hankow Railway south of Hankow.

Earlier reports said the Japanese in Itu suffered heavily in a futile attempt to break through the Chinese cordon. Two of the advanced bases from which the Japanese started their Yangtse drive last month are threatened by the counter-attacking Chinese according to tonight's despatches from the front.

After recovering a number of strong points on the Japanese outer defence line, the Chinese are now closing in on Ouchikow on the south bank of the Yangtse at its junction with the north-western arm of Tungting Lake, while on the north shore of the lake, the Chinese today occupied strategic points on the outskirts of the walled city of Hwayung.

A field report from Fancheng in Hupeh says heavy casualties were inflicted on the Japanese garrison at Hsuehsin when Chinese artillery bombarded the town. Munition and supply dumps were set on fire.—Reuter.

U. S. AIR ATTACK ON JAP ENCAMPMENT

NEW DELHI, June 8.

A fighter formation of the Tenth U. S. Air Force on June 7 attacked a Japanese encampment at Wehsi, 25 miles north of Myitkyina, with fragmentation bombs and by strafing, says a "communique" issued by the Rear Echelon Headquarters United States Army Forces China, Burma and India.

NUMBER OF ENEMY PLANES SHOT DOWN OVER BRITAIN

HANDS OFF ARGENTINE

BUENOS AIRES, June 8.

Gen. Ramirez, head of the new Government has issued the following declaration: "The Argentine Republic affirms its traditional policy of friendship and loyal co-operation with nations of the Americas in accordance with existing pacts. As regards the rest of the world its policy is at the moment one of neutrality.

The provisional Government considers it necessary to declare that it supports the principle of absolute autonomy of States to choose their own form of Government.

Consequently it will not tolerate any foreign interference because Argentine people maintain and will maintain through all vicissitudes which may occur its Republican representative form of Government in accordance with its constitution."

The Argentine Supreme Court has recognised the Provisional Government.

The new crisis in Argentina was, it appears, brought about owing to difference of opinion on foreign policy between General Rawson and some of his Ministers who disagreed with the new President's pro-Allied and pan-American attitude.

The following official statement was issued by the Secretariat to the Presidency to-day, "Quiet prevails throughout the country. Street rumours and those spread by telephone by persons tending to give rise to alarm and insecurity are absolutely unfounded.

All-India Radio, Bombay

Some time ago the "Bombay Samachar" in a leading article criticized the activities of the All India Radio, Bombay, and offered some very useful suggestions. Recently, Dr. D. G. Vyas in his Art Notes in the "Chronicle" has made a severe indictment of the officials who direct the Station. But there are tastes and tastes and Radio officials in accordance with their tastes and conceptions of True Art have, with a creative touch of modernity, revived the classical art, and converted this revival into a true re-formation!

Witness, for instance, these innovations: The Harmonium has been dethroned, and the Sarangi installed, —no matter it is ill-tuned and produces contempt-breeding screechings, especially during its sojourn into the third Octave. Then there is the Radio Orchestra which, breaking through the barriers of Ragstructure, emits tunes made up of happy blends of impossible, improbable, and incompatible notes. Then, we have Flute and Clarionet solo recitals. These instruments frantically attempt Khyal in slow Laya, and the various graces and curvetures they try to reproduce must be, verily, turning the musicians from Amirkhushroo to Abdul Karim in their graves. Further, we have the Garba. Three or four girls seated before the mike sing some songs in true Gujarati tunes unaccompanied by hand-clasps but accompanied by noisy drums and discordant orchestra. This makes up Garba—the artistic Garba of Gujarat!

Space forbids an exhaustive enumeration of all the innovations. Who says that the Bombay Station is not giving the best music and is not progressive? Will the Radio officials tell us how many times during the year the Advisory Committee meet and whether they offer any advice or suggestions and if so whether the same are adopted?

Dr. Vyas, and critical and enlightened connoisseurs of his type, instead of relying on stray criticisms, must carry on sustained agitation if they desire to shake the authoritarianism of the Bombay Station. Till then, some of the first-rate artists must suffer the now too-well-known indignities, inequities, and invidious preference for particular artists, and shrewd listeners the infliction of these experiments and innovations in the name of Art.

B.E.S.T. Buses

The B.E.S.T. buses that carry passengers from Churchgate Station to Ballard Estate are always overloaded because the passengers who alight from the trains rush in anxiety to reach their offices, specially between 10 a.m. to 10-30 a.m. May I request the authorities to run some buses from the railway station to the places like Ballard Estate during office-going times in the morning and also in the evenings, to help the passengers not only to reach the offices in time conveniently but also to obey the Police Commissioner's orders.

J. N. IYER.

Bus Queues

The Police Commissioner has issued an order stating that queues be formed at bus stops and generally speaking all should behave with perfect discipline under pain of punishment.

I wonder if the authorities that be have thought of associating neatly formed queues with the monsoon that is upon us when, amongst other teasers, one will have to think out how best to negotiate the muddy pool between the cart and the bus, or how best to manipulate the brolly so that it may not be folded too early to sock its owner, nor too late to impale some unsuspecting fellow traveller. As for waiting in the rain, patiently linked up at the 'unsheltered' stops, for buses which seem to be running at present to an eccentric time-table, is an experience which leaves one cold and dripping!

It is the practice in some cities on the continent to have small blocks of paper tickets with numbers marked, at the bus-stops—each prospective passenger pulling out a number as he arrives at the bus-stop. The first passenger usually walks up to the bus with his number, or calls it out and the conductor gives priority in accordance with the numbers.

This procedure is quick and takes up very little time.

TETE-A-TETE

WITHOUT COMMENT

One of the more harassing problems which the Bombay housewife has to face nowadays is that of domestic servants. Servants get more scarce and exacting day by day. If this state of affairs goes on much longer the price of cooks and butlers and even of the common or garden "Boy" will be above that of rubies which incidentally is even higher hereabouts than the bloated cost of diamonds.—ANGLO-INDIA.

The Orient Press gathers from reliable sources in New Delhi that the Ministry moves—with a large proportion of M.L.A.'s in jail—are "part of a concerted policy launched by the Government of India, imperceptibly and without any flourish...."

This letting the truth out of the bag is deplorably indiscreet and ill-advised.

But we cannot help congratulating the Orient Press Agency on its enterprising service. It has made a valuable contribution towards a better understanding of not only the Ministry moves but the whole political problem of India.

There is, we understand, a remarkable similarity in American and British opinion on the subject of post-war International police force.

On a fifty-fifty basis?

According to General Catroux, the Commissaire for co-ordination of Muslim affairs (in other words, of the affairs of the people of North Africa), "France does not distinguish between her own and her adopted sons".

In the matter of shedding blood and suffering generally for the glory of the "own" sons and THEIR Empire.

Talking of General Catroux, does the champion of Pakistan and Islamic nationalism know that the majority of North Africans have the honour of being, his fellow-nationals?

Eh what? Yes the implication of the question is certainly "as clear as daylight."

But aren't they quite plain? In fact, only less clear as daylight than the Qaid-e-Azam's Pakistan?

Mr. Naotak Sato, the Jap Ambassador in Moscow, conferred with M. Molotov for an hour, according to a Reuter's report.

Mr. Sato, however, need have neither worry nor doubt. Molotov is no fool.

RENT RESTRICTION

(BY JAL R. VIMADALAL)

The well-meaning Bombay Rent Restriction Act of 1939 has, in practice, given rise to considerable difficulties. In a matter which came up a few months back before our Chief Justice, the question arose as to whether or not sub-tenants were entitled to seek refuge within the precincts of the Act. It was argued on behalf of the landlord, that though the sub-tenant derived title from the tenant, he was not protected from ejectment unless rent was payable by him or on his account to the landlord. The Chief Justice was of opinion that there was no reason for supposing that the Legislature intended to protect only tenants and not sub-tenants. With all due respect to the Chief Justice, there is, as he concedes at one place in his judgment, every reason to suppose that the Act was intended to protect persons in actual occupation and not to encourage profiteering by sub-letting whole or part of the premises. We, however, agree with the Chief Justice, that under the definition of "tenant" as it now stands in the Act, sub-tenants and profiteering by sub-letting would also be protected.

In order to check this profiteering at the expense of the landlord, the Government should amend this definition and also Section 11 so as to provide in specific terms that sub-letting without the consent of the landlord, whole or part of the premises would be good ground for an ejectment order, as was done by the 1923 amendment to the old Rent Act of 1918. The Government would also do well to make it transparently clear whether the Act applies only to monthly tenancies or to tenancies for fixed periods as well.

That the Act is a boon to the poor, none will dispute for, as a poet put it,

"Title-deeds to sky and earth
God gave her at her birth."

But it is equally clear that the present Act is a much-abused and hastily-drafted piece of legislation that certainly needs repairs.

No Office In League For Ministers

KARACHI, June 8

It is understood that as a result of two days' deliberations between Mr. Jinnah and members of the Sind Provincial Muslim League Council, it has been decided that no Minister should hold office in the Provincial Muslim League.

The annual elections to the Provincial body were due to take place yesterday and before Mr. Jinnah's arrival in Karachi it had been expected that there would be a contest between the Premier Sir Ghulam Hussain Hidayatullah and Khan Bahadur Khuhro, Revenue Minister for the presidentship of the Provincial Muslim League.

There was a section of Leaguers, who felt that the President should be one who is not in the Ministry. The Elections have now been postponed to June 13 and the two prospective candidates are Mir Bandehali Khan Talpur, ex-Premier, and Mr Yusuf Abdullah Haroon, M.L.A. (Central).—A. P.

JOINT ANGLO-U. S. WAR AND PEACE STRATEGY

have always looked forward to this summer as being the period which would be favourable to us. Moreover, of course the enemy may decline battle, or he may look only for the most tempting opportunities. I must say I feel confident that the U-Boat war will not stand between the United Nations and their final victory, while all the time the air war will grow in weight and severity.

HAPPY AT FRENCH UNITY

"It happened at the time when I was in Algiers that Gen. de Gaulle and his friends arrived and I thought it would be well if the Foreign Secretary were on the spot in case it should be proved in our power to help. We did not in fact intervene at all in those tense discussions between the French, but like Gen. Eisenhower, the Supreme Commander, we watched closely and vigilantly in the light of the British and United States interests and of the well-being of our armies in North Africa. We all rejoiced when the agreement was made and the French National Committee of Liberation was set up and constituted as a single and sole authority for all Frenchmen seeking to free France from the German yoke. When one met those seven men, by and around whom the new French Cabinet has been formed, one could not but be struck by the many different aspects of French energy and capacity to resist, which they represented, and also by their high personal qualities. So the gravest responsibility lies upon these men and opportunities shine brightly before them. They have only to act together in good faith and loyalty to one another and to set aside sectional or personal interests and to keep all their hatreds for the enemy—they have only to do this to help to regain for France her inheritance, and in doing so become themselves inheritors of the gratitude of future generations of Frenchmen. The formation of this Committee with its collective responsibility supersedes the situation created by the correspondence between Gen. de Gaulle and myself in 1940. Our dealings, financial and otherwise, will henceforward be with the Committee as a whole.

RECOGNITION ISSUE

"There is a further and larger question, namely the degree of recognition of this Committee as representatives of France. These questions require consideration from British and United States Governments, but, if things go well, I should hope that a solution satisfactory to all parties may shortly be reached".

Summing up two predominant impressions of his journey Mr. Churchill said: "The first is the spirit, quality and organisation of the British and the Allied armies in North Africa. The second is the intimacy and strength of the ties now uniting the British and the United States Governments and the British and the American peoples. My own relations with the illustrious President of the United States have become those of personal friendship and regard, and nothing will ever happen to separate us in comradeship and partnership of thought and action while we remain responsible for the conduct of affairs. There can be no doubt tha whatever world organisation is brought into being after this war that organisation must be the richer and stronger if it is founded on the fraternal relations and the deep understanding prevailing and now growing between the British Commonwealth of Nations and the United States (cheers)."

Tata Oil Mills Strike

The Secretary, Bombay Soap and Oil Workers' Union (Red Flag) says in the course of a statement:—

"The workers of the Tata Oil Mills struck work on the 31st of last month on account of the failure of the management to concede their demands, such as immediate payment of bonus, adequate dearness allowance, increase in wages and minimum wage of Re. 1 per day for coolies. This dispute arose as early as in January 1943 when the Union sent a letter to the management enumerating the above demands. The management however, was not inclined to consider the same. Thereafter, the Union sent a notice of strike. At this stage, the Commissioner of Labour intervened and secured bonus equivalent to two months' wages and an increase of anna and half in dearness allowance.

At the time of declaration of bonus the workers were told that the same would be paid after March and accordingly the workers patiently waited but to their surprise the management did not pay the same till April, when the workers approached the manager demanding the declaration of the date for payment of bonus. This time the manager told the workers that the bonus would be paid in July, which was not acceptable to the workers. The workers waited till May in the hope that the management would reconsider their attitude but were disappointed at the attitude of the former. Therefore, again on the 4th May the Union served another notice of strike. During the course of the period of strike notice, the Union explored all possible avenues of settlement of the dispute with the express desire of avoiding a strike. However, the management did not think it fit to consider the demands.

When the workers found that all their attempts at the settlement of the dispute through peaceful means had almost failed, they sent a letter to Mr. J. R. D. Tata, Chairman of Tata Sons Ltd., appearing to him to intervene in the matter. In response to this letter the management agreed to receive a deputation of workers and accordingly towards the end of last month, the deputation interviewed Mr. A. D. Shroff, who also was not sympathetic. Ultimately, the workers found no other alternative except a strike. The Union both before and after the strike began, saw the Commissioner of Labour and acquainted him with the situation and sought his intervention. He was requested to refer the matter to adjudication but the request was not acceded to. However, the Commissioner of Labour assured the Union that he would try his best to secure bonus and dearness allowance. This gesture of the Commissioner of Labour was explained to the workers, who felt that the Commissioner of Labour had not effectively intervened.

Fifty-seven office girls of the Ford Motor Company staged a sit-down strike as a protest against the Company's order directing them to wear slacks.

When the girls arrived for work in skirts—which the company considers dangerous because of risk of entanglement in machinery—they were told to go home and change. The girls refused. "We are going to make a fight of this case," the Local Union Chief announced.—Reuter.

"Hold Leaders' Conference And Invite Jinnah"

BOMBAY, June 8.

Sir A. H. Ghuznavi who was in Bombay in an interview to our representative said that he welcomed Rajaji's suggestion to hold a leaders' conference and hoped that Rajaji would succeed in inducing Mr. Jinnah to agree to attend the conference.

Continuing further Sir A. H. Ghuznavi observed that it was not fair on the part of the Government to keep the majority in jail and allow the formation of ministries without testing their strength in the legislature.

Admitting the fairness of the right of self-determination of Muslims he found it difficult to agree to Pakistan which he characterised as a slogan invented by Mr. Jinnah and not defined by him. He also suggested the recall of the Indian Agent General in South Africa as a protest against Pegging Bill which has now become law.—Orient Press.

KARACHI, June 8.— The Karachi Municipal Corporation has decided to raise a loan of Rs. 34,00,000 in connection with the Indus water scheme.
